Fire Department Hints For A Fire Safe Christmas

YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE

When buying your tree try to obtain one that hasn't dried out from prolonged storage and remember the larger the tree the greater the hazard.

Just before setting up the tree, saw off the trunk at an angle at least one inch above the original cut.

Place the tree in a secure stand designed for holding water and keep the level of the water above the cut the entire time the tree is indoors. (Check the water level at least once a day).

Support the tree well. Don't put it near sources of heat or where, standing or fallen it could block the way out of the room in case of fire.

Artificial trees need care in selection and handling too. Plastic and metalized trees can burn. Use the type clearly marked as slow burning materials.

Metal trees are not a fire hazard but may be a shock hazard so use only indirect lighting with them.

Your Fire Department.

Christmas Tree Disposal

Christmas Trees will be picked up in the PMQ area starting at 8:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 6th, 1965.

Occupants are requested to place their trees near the road in front of their PMQ prior to that date.

The normal garbage pick-up will not take trees at any time, and occupants will therefore be responsible for removal of any trees after January 6th.

Please make certain your children do not play with, remove or accumulate trees which are awaiting removal.

ROYAL CANADIAN ARMY MEDICAL CORPS

The familiar Rod of Aesculapius (a serpent entwined about a rod) in the midst of a wreath of maple leaves and surmounted by the Crown is the cap badge of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

"In arduis fidelis" — faithful in adversity — keynotes the healing services rendered during war and peace.

The serpent and rod are the symbols of the healer and doctor. Medical Corpsmen are schooled at Camp Borden, Ont.

History of Christmas

by Paula Randolph

O once a sparkling night
O'er Bethlehem a Star shone bright
Three Wise Men a Star did see
Oh, said they, "What can it be?"

Meanwhile in a distant field, the Angel Choirs did sing.
Said they to the Shepherds, "Come, Adore the Holy King,
For in a distant manger amid the straw and hay,
The Redeemer God promised now fast asleep lay."

And this Day is remembered yet,
A Day that no one can forget.

Editor-in-Chief Extends Season's Greetings

This is the fourth Christmas which I have spent in Western Command and the time has gone quickly. It is a wonderful opportunity for me to express my gratitude to all ranks who serve at Griesbach, and their families for the good work and strong support which they have given me. The spirit which permeates this relationship is described at Christmas time as "good will towards all men". My "good will" certainly goes out to you this Christmas and I would like to send you all my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year. I think we can say that our contribution to the maintenance of peace with freedom has been a worth-while one this year.

"A MERRY CHRISTMAS"

Go Around the World with Santa Claus

Santa Claus is a wanted man. But he won't be easy to track down, for he has too many aliases.

In one part of the world he pops up under the name of Julenissen; in another, the Abbot of Unreason; in a third, as Saint Nicholas, or Father Christmas.

Santa's rewards, as well as his name, vary from place to place. In one country, a bad child is liable to find coals in his stockings. Elsewhere, a good child may discover a "Yogi Bear"!

What and When

Santa's timetable and the gifts he brings vary with the particular country where he has staked out operations.

In Spain, he bears gifts on January 6, Epiphany, in celebration of the Three Wise Men. Kids put their shoes in the windows and fill them with straw for the neighbors' horse—in the hope that while the horses may neigh, Santa won't say "nay."

In Germany, he wears a big chain which he rattles at the door, and enters bringing candy and cookies for the good youngsters, an empty potato sack for the bad ones.

In North America, Santa fills the good kids' stockings with everything from electric trains and model space rockets to toys testing their skills and expanding their knowledge.

In Italy, Santa comes as an old woman on a broomstick, named La Befana, and leaves gifts in the shoes of nice children. But woe to those who don't mind their parents—they're apt to find ashes in their brogans!

Names He Gets

Santa Claus has been known by many names in his remarkable career.

Saint Nicholas. In the 4th century he was modeled after the original St. Nicholas who lived in Turkey and whose deeds of courage and kindness earned him after death the title of patron saint of children. The legend of the good saint as gift-giver later spread to Russia, Scandinavia, Holland, Belgium and Germany.

The Abbot of Unreason. In the Middle Ages, the gift giver took human form and became an officer who directed the festivities of the holiday season. Dubbed the Abbot of Unreason by the Scots, and the Lord of Misrule, he held office from Christmas till January 6 and his word was law. Either elected or appointed, he ruled over the holiday activities in royal household, colleges, and inns. The English called him King of the Bean, and to the French he was the Boy Bishop.

Christkindlein. In Germany during the 15th century, Martin Luther, a religious leader who also invented a lot of new German words, substituted the Christ Child, or Christkindlein, for St. Nicholas as the bearer of gifts. He wanted to make the bearing of gifts a symbol of the Wise Men's visit to Bethlehem, bringing gold, frankincense, and myrrh. So the Christ Child came secretly to German homes on the Eve of Christmas.

Kris Kringle. In the 17th century, a German colony led by William Penn settled in Pennsylvania, and again Santa changed his name! The settlers had brought the Christkindlein with them, but somehow it got transformed into Kris Kringle.

Santa, himself! The Dutch nicknamed St. Nicholas "Santa Claus" for short, but his image as a fat little man with rosy cheeks and white beard comes down to us from a poem written in 1822 by Dr. Clement C. Moore an American minister. Dr. Moore based the poem on a colorful Dutchman he once met, and named it, "The Night Before Christmas." He recited it to his children, who were delighted. Then he threw it away. A lady visitor rescued it from the wastebasket and had it published in the Troy, N.Y., Sentinel. It became a literary classic and almost every child now knows about the creatures that were not stirring, not even a mouse.

Father Christmas. During the 19th century, Santa recrossed the Atlantic from the USA and became known as Father Christmas in England and Pere Noel in France.

Julenissen. That's what the Norwegians call him, and he works overtime in the land of the fiords. He brings gifts to good kids before they go to bed on Christmas Eve, after the family has finished Christmas dinner; and in the week between Christmas and New Year's he totes his sack to a community party for the children called "Jultrefest."

Regardless of the name by which Santa is known, and no matter where he appears, one fact about the old-timer remains constant:

He is a wanted man!

for the Ladies

By Betty Hunter

Christmas is almost here again, reminding me of pantomimes which are traditional at this time of year. The first pantomime that comes to my mind is J. M. Barrie's "Peter Pan" — the story of the boy who wouldn't grow up — the most delightful of all the Christmas plays. As the big day approaches a little of Peter Pan emerges in all of us. Each Christmas for the past few years we have said, "We won't bother much this year — it's hardly worth it without small children in the house". Luckily this attitude collapses as the festive season draws nearer and we end up preparing as we have done in other years. I think each family builds its own kind of Christmas compounded of ideas from the past, with new ideas added as the children become old enough to participate in the preparations. Last year we bought outdoor lights for our bungalow. An eight year old neighbour whose home is always decorated outside for Christmas, made a special trip out-of-doors after dark to inspect our efforts. He informed his mother that we had done a very good job, and he was quite satisfied with the results. His praise made the job worthwhile, and the chilled fingers acquired at roof level, didn't matter at all.

ETIQUETTE

Several of the ladies have mentioned that at this time of year, with so many invitations being sent out, it might be a good idea to give some mention to rules of etiquette — replying to invitations, what to wear, etc. This is a pretty comprehensive subject, and lack of space would certainly prevent proper coverage. However, I have made enquiries at one of the Edmonton Public Libraries and also in a downtown Department store. There are many books on the subject and here are just a few of the titles I found. "The Random House Vest Pocket Handbook of Etiquette" at $1.65; Amy Vanderbilt's "New Complete Book of Etiquette"; "Manners Made Easy" by Mary Beery, and Eleanor Roosevelt's "Book of Common Sense Etiquette". Most of these are available in the Public Libraries and make very interesting reading.

Non Alcoholic Punch

Here is an economical recipe for a punch which I have had passed on to me:

4 cups boiling water poured over 2 tea bags
Add 1 cup sugar

PAPER QUIPS FROM AREA "A" BRANCH

by Sgt. Hal Nordin

On the 5th of this month, our geants' Mess. This shindig took the form of a dance, with Christmas carols and a feed. Arrangements were in the capable hands of Jerry Collins, Roy Willard and Larry Saulnier. Thanks, people, you did a good job.

Much controversy was aired recently when our amiable chief clerk Staff (Bud) Woollam, decided to line up his forces our wonderful typewriter command's. He now has the entire feminine element within range of his whip. The men of the branch thought for a time he was being greedy. We now realize that the move was made in the name of progress.

Warmest Yuletide Greetings to all our friends.

17 ROD

ALL RANKS DANCE

17 Regional Ordnance Depot held an All-Ranks Dance at PPCLI PT Lounge on Sat Dec 5.

Hockey's staunch supporters managed to employ delaying tactics until after the Saturday night's game before they made their way to the dance. Remarks like: "Aw, take Henri Richard off the team and what have they got left?", and, "So they got beat 10-2. Maybe it's better they get a bad game like that out of their system before the playoffs!" were overheard as postmortems were conducted.

Rollie Freeman and his versatile music makers, had no difficulty in coaxing young and old alike to take part when he and his pals gave out with lively pol-kas and gliding tangos.

Capt. Gedge, as MC, soon had the dancers engaged in party games. One, played with a football in a "through legs and over head" manoeuvre, might not have been approved by Dave Skrien, master-mind of the Lions, but it provided the onlookers with plenty of enjoyment, especially when one of the participants was a lady wearing a long billowing skirt through which the ball had difficulty in passing.

The caper with the short handled broom also served to be of equal entertainment value. The climax was reached when Lt. Stasiuk chased Bob MacDonald around the room in a vain effort to deposit the broom in his hands.

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. S. E. Hunter

led the supper parade to the attractive buffet prepared under the direction of Sgt. Bob Adams. The ROD's gourmets had plenty of opportunity to practice their skills as they sampled roast beef, ham, salads, jellies and enticing party cakes arrayed in an impressive display before them.

Capt. Gedge, Sgt. Thuillier, and members of the Regimental Funds committee who were responsible in arranging this exceptionally fine party deserve the appreciation of all those who attended.

Pilkington Brothers of Britain, one of the world's largest glass manufacturers, in 1964 handed out a $23,282.201 share bonus to 90 family shareholders.

March of this year.

After the normal waiting period, Foster Parents Plan Inc. notified the SYG that they were now Foster Parents of Child No. 10537, a young Korean girl named Jin Hi Yun. The Group was given a complete account of the adopted child's personal history which is so identical to thousands of other such pitiful cases caused by war and its terrifying results.

Jin Hi's father was attending college when the Korean war erupted in 1950 and immediately went into the army. He was reported missing not long after the child was born in September 1954. Her mother, heart-broken, died soon after and the child has been cared for since by her grandmother.

As can be seen by the picture above, Jin Hi is a beautiful girl. The Foster Parents Plan have reported that she is gentle, sweet-tempered and is devoted to her 65 year-old grandmother whom she assists as much as possible in their humble abode. The 10 year-old girl works hard and wants to keep on studying so that later on she may work with the church in some capacity.

Jin Hi and the Youth Group correspond regularly through the service provided by translators of the PLAN. Her letters to her Foster Parents reflect the deep appreciation that is developing through their brief association. The Group also found it possible this year to send an additional gift of $15 to their charge which will enable her to enjoy Christmas just a little better.

The generosity and thoughtfulness of this enterprising Griesbach Group in making a decision to help one of the world's unfortunate waifs with practical assistance is indeed commendable. The monthly assignment of $8.00 from their treasury will provide clothing, special medical care, an education and a promise of better things for to-morrow!

Would it not be a wonderful thing if other military institutions, blessed with greater assets than this struggling little group, were to follow their example?

At a regular monthly meeting back in November 1963, a suggestion presented by Capt. S. H. Clarke to the St. John's Senior Youth Group, was adopted, developed and became a reality in

A collection of thirty-seven eye-witness accounts of the world's greatest war adventures. The reader finds himself with Joshua at Jericho and in doomed Hiroshima the day the bomb falls.

The Oak Island Mystery

— By R. V. Harris.

Oak Island, Nova Scotia, is the site of one of the most baffling mysteries of our time. Buried deep beneath her soil, in an ancient rendezvous, is a fabulous treasure — which, though believed to exist, has never been discovered. You'll enjoy this story of a mystery that still defies solution.

Disaster at Dungeness — By Ronald Johnston.

A collision between oil tankers, the central event of this book is entirely fictional but written with such authenticity that it could be a real life story. Throughout the events leading up to the crash, the scenes of violence, turmoil and bloodshed caused by the accident itself, and through the subsequent legal enquiry, the story is increasingly gripping. Ronald Johnston is an exciting new author who brings a sure touch to descriptions of a disaster at sea.

17 ROD News Briefs

By: WO2 J. A. Erskine

FAREWELLS

The exodus continues! Last month saw a flock of our civilians taking off for higher positions in the Civil Service. This month finds the trend changing to the military side of our ranks.

Major D. S. Moore, CD, who spent many of his post-war years with 26 COD in Cobourg, was with the ROD since 1962. He has officially retired to take advantage of the present lucrative opportunities being offered on civvy street. Holding the appointment of OSO, Major Moore also performed the duties of Acting CO on many occasions. He was well-known in Alberta Area because of the excellent co-operation he displayed in his associations with both the Regular and Militia units.

Lieut. F. Sargent, ROD's Admin Officer and former Quartermaster with 1 QOR, was with the depot since 1959 in various capacities. He has taken his release to accept an administrative position with the University of Alberta.

WO2 Leo Goetz, who has been commuting from Calgary for the past nine months since his return from the Middle East, will be leaving the service on retirement in February. His experience will be utilized by the CO of our Calgary Det on inspections until he makes that final trip to the PD.

Kitty Russell, operator of the MSL snack bar, also left on Nov. 30th. Incidentally, Mrs. Vi MacAuley who took over from Kitty, bears a strong family resemblance to her predecessor.

Lt. R. B. Stasuk has been selected for an Ammunition Technical Officer's Course. He leaves for jolly Old Blighty on Dec. 28 and is naturally looking forward to meeting a few English lasses during his tenure over there.

Cpl. I. Clark, vice-president of the Bowling League, pulled up stakes on Nov. 30 and headed for the Gaza Strip and all the treasures buried in the sands of time. Pte. J. Woloszyn has also departed for a tour with 1 OFP in Calgary.

Sgt. Bob Bunning leaves early in January for the Middle East. He's been well versed by former residents of the Strip regarding tourist attractions.

It is with mixed emotions that we witness the retirement of soldiers loaded with good old army savvy. However, whatever must be, will be, and to those who are retiring, we offer our best wishes for continued success in their chosen fields.

MILITIA CAPER

The recent decision to close down certain militia units has presented an additional burden to the AOO and his staff. However, with the usual get-up-and-go of our Corps, the problems are being solved and the project is well under way.

Ad Hoc and regular inspection teams are actively engaged in this caper throughout Alberta. Anyone looking for such depot stalwarts as Staff Aucoin, Staff Turpin, Sgt. Foster and others, may rest assured that they are not AWOL but are off on special assignments in the hinterland.

CALGARY VISITORS

Mr. Court Hughes dragged himself away from the Det at Calgary long enough to take advantage of some job training on internal audit procedures from the experts. Sgt. Halverson, Beware!

Capt. E. D. McRae, CO of the Det, spent a few days in a get-together session with the AOO and his staff during the last week in November.

RQMS Bob Jamieson and Staff Switzer of the LDSH (RC) also dropped in for a quick look-see on how the "better half" lives.

ADMIN OFFICER

Lt. R. D. Johnson, who has seen service in almost every department in the ROD, took over the appointment of Admin Officer from Lieut. Sargent on December 11.

NAVY ? ?

Mrs. Maureen Brown, Central Registry, held part of her Christmas festivities a bit early this year. Son "Chuck", recently enrolled in the RCN, and who attended school here in Griesbach, arrived home from Halifax after completing basic training. After a short visit he set off for Vancouver and HMCS Naden. No doubt Mrs. B. will be getting post cards from all points of the compass shortly.

It has also been reported that Sgt. Harry Flanders, once a member of this depot, and now with 1 OFP, has also allowed his son to join the senior service. What gives? Oh well, integration will take care of it, I guess.

Verella Sutley, who has been looking after the CO and the OSO since Alden Vet took off for Vancouver, can occasionally be seen dashing madly down the hall muttering "wurdiego?"

Larry Selland and Pte. Patterson left on Nov. 27 for a three week packaging course at The School. We are getting quite a few chaps qualified as packaging experts. Watch out, if you are found standing in one spot too long, you'll probably find your self gift wrapped!

Capt. A. V. Read, Area Controls Officer, entered hospital on Nov. 23 in an attempt to keep the surgeons busy. He did. No doubt plenty of Kildare / Casey stories will be floating around when he returns to the job!

Cpl. W. A. Henderson, formerly of 15 ROD, has joined our happy group after a three-year posting in Europe. Bob Brereton has been transferred from Jake Wiedeman's paper factory in Inspections, and is now tossing it around over in RSS. RQMS Tom Carlyle-Bell is now a full-fledged member of our organization and will be "receiving" at RSS vice Leo Geotz. How does it feel to be on the other end of the Totem pole, Tom?

Recent quote from our Staff Yashchuk: "The quickest way to stop that pesky neighbour from asking if he may use your phone, is to have it taken out!"

Mrs. Jean Preece has moved into the ACO's office to handle the typing chores for Capt. Read and company. Hope she doesn't suffer from claustrophobia. . . . Jack Coghlan and his aide, Hank Schippers, dropped down to Calgary for a look-see at the Detachment's set-up during the first week in December.

The DM Auditors have come and gone — apparently satisfied with our present modus operandi.

NEWCOMERS

Pte. F. R. McLellan has transferred from PPCL Depot on a one for one swap for Pte. A. P. Beaudry. Pte. D. V. J. Sigouin has also joined us from 4 OFP.

I understand there will be a special sale on RCOG insignia soon for those members of the RCASC who show an eagerness to join our fast-growing corps.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

At his monthly meeting, Lt.-Col. S. E. Hunter extended to all officers, men and civilians under his command, best wishes for the festive season. The past year has been a productive one and the

CHRISTMAS TIME

By Paula Randolph

Christmas is the time to be happy, joyous and gay,
And wonder at parcels that 'neath the tree lay,
To look at the lights, row upon row,
To look at fir trees covered with snow.
Happy shouts from everywhere,
Fill the cold, crisp yuletide air.
And when the horizon hides the sun,
You will know that Christmas for another year is done.

Guides' Christmas Message

As this Festive Season is approaching and I am thinking about a Christmas message to send to all Brownies, Guides, Rangers, Guiders and Local Association members, the words of Edith Abbott come to mind:

Blessings on your home
And all who therein dwell
May happiness abide there
With thoughtful love as well,
And may the Christmas spirit
Of love and joy and peace
Be spread abroad from home to home
That its mission never cease.

Every Christmas brings this message of love and happiness and spreads the spirit of goodwill among us. It is this spirit which makes it a season of gifts; in this spirit that the tree is lighted and the melody of carols go round the world.

As we are all working together, giving service to others and living according to the Guide Promise and Law, I hope we are helping to keep this spirit of Christmas alive, and that we will continue to do so, not only during this Christmas season, but all through the years to come.

I send to each and every one of you my greetings and the old, old wish for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Anne Wray,
District Commissioner.

Christmas in Gaza

By ? ? ?

"Twas the night before Christmas and all through the tents,
Not a creature was stirring, who had any sense.
The stockings were hung on the tent poles with care
In hopes that the Bedouins would leave them right there.
The UNEF soldiers lay snug in their beds,
While visions of Amstel danced in their heads.
The RSM in blue kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled down to a long winter's nap.
Then out on the sand there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.
Tore open the screen door, hit my head a good bash.
The moon on the crest of the newly-blown sand,
Gave a lustre like noon to a scene simply grand.
Then wonders of wonders, to my red eyes appeared
A miniature sleigh, with eight camels, I feared.
The little old driver was skinny and quick.
It was hard to believe it was really St. Nick.
But slower than snails his camels they came,
And he jibbered and jabbered and called them by name.
On Abdul, Mohammed...on, Ali, Hussein,
Come Gebel and Jabel, Ras and Mussein.
From the top of the washstands to the top of the showers,
Dashaway, dash away, turn off the power.
Then, in a moment, I heard on the roof,
The thumping and banging of each camel hoof.
As I straightened my camp and was turning around,
Down the stovepipe St. Nicholas came with a bound.
He was dressed like an Arab from his head to his foot
And his drawers were all covered with ashes and soot.
He was sleepy and droopy, in need of a belt
And I couldn't help laughing in spite of myself.
A hubbly-hubbly he held in his teeth,
And the smoke encircled his head like a wreath.
His eyes, how they bagged, his pupils, how bleary,
His cheeks were like ragweed, his nose like a cherry.
Had a pert little face and a round little belly,
Which shook when he laughed, like a bowlful of jelly.
He spoke not a word... but went right to his work.
Swiped parcels and stockings, and turned with a jerk.
Then, laying a finger aside of his beak,
Up the chimney flew, quick as a streak.
He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down on a thistle.
I heard him exclaim, as he drove out of sight...
"Merry Christmas to all — I'll be back New Year's Night."

SCOUT NEWS

This month we have some news from the Group Committee to start off with. Sgt. Joe DUDDLE, our very able paper drive organizer, has been hospitalized for awhile and we all wish him the best and hope to see him in action again soon.

After a very distinguished career as chairman of the Group Committee, Capt. W. O. BOTTING has handed in his resignation. We were sorry to see him go after a job well done. A successor has not been named as yet but a few rumours are flying around. We'll have to wait and see, then give him the support he will need.

Now the more important portion of the month's events.

1st Lancaster Park "C" Pack

"C" Pack had a swim night on 2 Nov 64. Everyone enjoyed themselves with a lot of splashing and shouting. During the swim, five boys decided to try for their Swimmer's Badge after a lot of joyous entertainment with the rest of the pack looking on. A going up ceremony was held with 2 boys, Dale WARKE and Gary MAHAR, the participants.

1st Griesbach Buccaneer Pack

The first meeting of the pack was held 28 Sep 64 with CM Pearl McLean once again at the helm. The pack has acquired many new chums again this year. An appeal went out to the parents for assistance and Mrs. Mallette, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Olson came forward. This is greatly appreciated. Mrs. Mailey is hoping to attend a basic leaders course in Jan. The pack went on a tour of CFRN Radio and TV Station, thanks to Mrs. Vi Grazier, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Cunningham and Mr. Bob Harris for supplying their cars. A pirate night was held on 30 Oct 64 and ten parents came out to watch and stay for the meeting. The able assistance of Allan Wasney in the teaching of semaphore has been acquired.

Cents and Sense

Youngsters often find it hard to accept the earnest arguments of their parents on the desirability of getting a good education. But in the latest census figures on individual incomes related to schooling, they can see, in dollars and cents, just what a man's education is worth in Ontario.

The 1961 figures show that of the 16,000 in the province who had no schooling, about 37 per cent were earning less than $1,000 a year. The average income of this group was $2,218.

Those who had some form of education, whether at kindergarten or elementary school, were earning $3,438 on an average. For those who had completed one to three years high school the average income was $4,136; for those who completed four to five years high school it was $5,070. Some university education meant a man could expect to earn $5,301 annually.

The difference made by a university degree was a sizeable one. Only about one per cent of university graduates in the province were earning less than $5,000 a year, while 65 per cent had incomes greater than $6,000. The average earning for the degree holder was $9,370.
